Key changes from the Lotteries and Amusements Act 1976

When the 2005 Act came into force on 1st September 2007, existing small lottery registrations under the Lotteries and Amusements Act 1976 were transferred to the 2005 Act. The Lotteries and Amusements Act 1976 was repealed on that date. The 2005 Act introduces some relaxations of lottery law and in particular:

- removes the individual limits on the percentage of proceeds that may be applied to expenses or prizes - although the maximum global amount that can be deducted for expenses and prizes remains at 80 per cent, with a minimum of 20 per cent going to the purposes of the society;
- allows rollovers of prize funds from one lottery to another promoted by the same society, provided the maximum single prize does not exceed £25,000 or ten per cent of the gross proceeds;
- permits the sale of tickets by an automated process; and
- removes the £2 maximum limit on ticket prices
